

Consent to Act as a Research Subject

Principle Investigator: Haijun Xia (haijunxia@ucsd.edu)

Affiliation: Department of Cognitive Science, University of California, San Diego

You are invited to participate in a study about using an interacting plotting system to create data plots. Your decision to participate is voluntary, and you are free to withdraw at any time without any consequences. You are not required to answer any questions you do not feel comfortable answering. You are not required to complete any task you do not feel comfortable completing.

The overall duration of the study is around 120 mins, and you will receive a 75 USD Amazon Gift Card as compensation. There will be no cost to you for participating in this study.

Participation in this study may involve some risks or discomforts. These include the following:

1. A potential for the loss of confidentiality. We strive to protect your confidentiality with the following: 1) Research records will be kept confidential to the extent allowed by law. Research records may be reviewed by the UCSD Institutional Review Board. 2) In all data files, your name and identifying features will be removed and replaced with a code in order to preserve confidentiality. 3) Only the researchers involved in this study will have access to the information you provide.
2. A potential for boredom or fatigue. If so, please inform the experimenter and you can take a break at any moment of the study.

Because this is a research study, there may also be some unknown risks that are currently unforeseeable. You will be told if any important new information is found during this study that may affect your wanting to continue. There may or may not be any direct benefits to you by participating in this study. However, the investigator may learn more about how visual content and systems are understood by you and how effective the design applications are, and society may also benefit from this knowledge.

The PI may remove you from the study without your consent if the PI feels it is in your best interest or the best interest of the study. You may also be withdrawn from the study if you do not follow the instructions given you by the study personnel.

You are free to ask questions about the process at any time. If you have other questions or research-related problems, you may reach Haijun Xia at 858-246-2508. You may call the Human Research Protections Program Office at 858-246-HRPP (858-246-4777) to inquire about your rights as a research subject or to report research-related problems.
